The PANDAS Physicians Network (“PPN”) is a subsidiary of the Foundation for Brain Science and Immunology, a non-profit, 501c3. Our goal is to help medical professionals understand, diagnose and treat PANS and PANDAS by providing to them quality research, diagnostic and treatment tools.

Your donation dollars will not only help maintain PPN’s tools, but will help further prove that the immune system can cause such psychological distress.

Please make enclosed check payable to: The Foundation for Brain Science and Immunology.
